

RECRUITMENT ADVERT

PAISLEY DIOCESAN OFFICE

Counsellor for Paisley diocese marriage counselling service for couples married in the Catholic church.

Paisley Diocese Marriage Counselling service is looking for a counsellor (self-employed) to provide counselling sessions for clients using the service. The applicant will be a therapist with proven expertise in working with couples. The service supports couples married in the Catholic church and the service is underpinned by the Christian tradition. See the link below for further details on this opportunity.

It is essential that applicants:

- Are currently registered with either BACP/COSCA/UKCP or equivalent.
- Have proven experience working with couples and either have/are working towards a relevant couple work qualification.

The service was set up 4 years ago and is managed by the current counsellor, with whom the successful applicant would liaise.

Referrals currently are mainly taken from within Paisley diocese with a significant minority from neighbouring dioceses. Sessions have resumed in the Curia offices (within the grounds of St Mirin's Cathedral in Paisley) and, to date, have been held on Saturdays when the offices are quieter. Delivery of the sessions is not restricted to a Saturday: specific times can be determined between counsellor and clients.

The diocese provides guidelines for the counselling session fees which are currently paid directly to the counsellor by the clients.

The counsellor is responsible for the maintenance of all relevant records within the requirements of their governing body, have relevant professional insurance and to meet their supervision requirement as set out by their governing body.

The counsellor is also responsible for managing all necessary administration involved in organising clients' sessions.

To obtain an application pack for this post please either email recruitment@rcdop.org.uk or write to Recruitment, Paisley Diocese, Diocesan Centre Cathedral Precincts, Ingle Street, Paisley, PA1 1HR.

Closing Date for receipt of applications is 12.00 noon on Tuesday 30th January 2022
